

Philadelphia C. 14. 1888.

Dear Mr. Fox, -

At the time I left the mint this morning, I was actuated by physical reasons; - and I have lately been under a burden of care... Two of my near relatives have been out of health..

Since this morning
when I quitted the Mint, I have consulted with members of my family who are friends of yours as well and mine, and they have convinced me that my conduct was a breach of discipline which justified your course. I express hereby my obligation that you did not pursue a severer course; - and I request you to receive my apology. -

I beg you to feel no further displeasure. -

Very respectfully

Phoebe Cable Gibbons. -

[Abstract:] An apology.

Philadelphia,
June 14, 1888

Dear Mr. Fox, -

At the time I left the mint this morning, I was actuated by physical reasons; and I have lately been under a burden of care. Two of my near relatives have been out of health.

Since this morning when I quitted the Mint, I have consulted with members of my family who are friends of yours as well as mine, and they have convinced me that my conduct was a breach of discipline which justified your course. I express hereby my obligation that you did not pursue a severe course; and I request you to receive my apology.

I beg you to feel no further displeasure.

Very respectfully,
Phebe Earle Gibbons.
